

TOP 10

fun & fabulous things to do in Davis

Impossible Acres

You can pick berries and fruit in the spring and summer, but the best thing to do is to get a season pass in October to pet brand-new baby farm animals—a perfect outing right after church! impossibleacres.com

Slide Hill Park / Manor Pool

Bring flattened cardboard and slide down the concrete slide! In the summer, go swimming at Manor Pool, which has a waterslide and high diving board! 1525 Tulip Lane

Farmer's Market / Yolo Berry

Get fresh, local produce and delicious food (Fat Face Sandwiches on Saturday mornings are awesome!). Thursday nights, listen to local bands and run into lots of other fun FBC families! If you didn't already get dessert, cross the street to get froyo at Yolo Berry, a local favorite! 4th Street / 316 C St

Covell Greenbelt

Davis has several different greenbelts, but the one in North Davis boasts some giant dominos for your viewing and climbing pleasure! It's a lovely place for a run or walk and connects several parks. localwiki.org/davis/Covell_Greenbelt

Common Grounds

Starbucks is great, but you can also support this local coffee shop with the best seating in town. Right next to Dos Coyotes if you need something for lunch, too! 2171 Cowell Blvd

Library / Skate Park

The library is conveniently right by the skate park and playgrounds. Community Park is also where you can watch fireworks on the 4th of July (and Celebrate Davis, a Thursday in May). 315 E 14th St

Davis Commons / Arboretum

Grab lunch at My Burma or one of the many eateries, then cross the parking lot to walk or run the 3-mile loop of the UCD Arboretum. Most plants are labeled and sometimes you'll see a peacock. Just don't feed the ducks! Go across the street to downtown to grab ice cream at Davis Creamery (113 E St)! 500 1st St

UC Davis Memorial Union

Besides the annual Whole Earth Festival (Mother's Day weekend) and Picnic Day celebration (mid-April), you can visit the UCD MU basement for cheap bowling, billiards, and arcades. Why go to London when you can ride a double-decker bus for $1?! Also, this is the standard meeting spot for college students! 814 2nd St

Davis Co-op

Pay $15 ($20/year thereafter) to be a member of this local food co-op for access to organic and local foods. There are also great cooking classes for all ages. 620G St

Putah Creek Riparian Reserve

This relatively little-known nature reserve has some fun trails and places to explore, and some areas allow for swimming or floating on the creek as well! Get more info/maps at arboretum.ucdavis.edu/putah-creek
